Brief History

The Statue of the Infant of Prague was presented as a gift to the parish of Our Lady Queen of Peace by the Rector. Fr. Jerome Moras, OCD of the Shrine of the Infant of Prague, the Czech Republic. With the permission of the Bishop of the Diocese of Victoria, the Statue was officially installed on August 30th, 2003 by Fr. Moras. Since that date, Our Lady Queen of Peace Church has been designated as an official site of the Shrine of the Infant of Jesus.

Devotion to the Divine Infant originated with the Carmelites in the city of Prague, at the beginning of the 17th Century. The Princess Polyxema received as a wedding gift, a statue of the Divine Infant, previously brought from Spain. After the death of her husband, the princess devoted herself to works of charity and was particularly helpful to the Carmelites saying; “give you what I prize most highly in the world; honour and respect the Child Jesus and you shall never be in want.”

However, during the war, the monastery was vandalized and the invaders seized the statue and threw it into a pile of rubbish. Seven years passed and the statue was forgotten until it was found broken and mutilated by Fr. Cyril, who previously had received spiritual help from the Divine Infant, The statue was restored by a benefactor and once more peace and prosperity returned to the Carmelites and an avalanche of miracles and divine favours occurred.

People come every Thursday to Our Lady Queen of Peace Church in Esquimalt and partake in devotions to the Infant Jesus, which are held after the 12:10pm Mass.

Being blessed with oil from the Shrine of Prague, many people say they have received special graces and blessings through intercessions to the Divine Infant. “The Little King has been enthroned as the Great King of the world to assist His subjects in their trials, difficulties and crosses. He who Himself has suffered so much, desires to assist those who come to Him. He wishes to attract all hearts to His own through the attractiveness and simplicity of His Divine Infancy.”

O Infant Jesus of Prague, bless and protect us!

Campaign to Support the Crisis in Syria

As you read in the letter from Archbishop Richard Smith, the President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops, there is a terrible crisis in Syria, with millions of people homeless, separated from their families, hungry and driven from their homeland. They so very much need our help to get through these terrible times. Development and Peace and Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops are spearheading a drive to offer help to these poor people. Your donations are vital. Please consider giving immediately

- by telephone 1-888-664-3387

Any of these methods will give you a tax receipt and you will know that you have risen to the compassionate need of others as our Lord urges us to do. And remember: The works of love are works of peace (motto at Mother Theresa’s funeral).
