For Young Adults -- Theology on Tap

With the approaching Federal Election, questions about political choices inevitably arise. How does a Catholic understand and approach politics? Can I even make a political choice with the current political options? Fr. Harrison Ayre will begin our year at Theology on Tap addressing these questions, giving a brief overview of the Church's stance on politics, what is the current position, and how to form one's conscience when making political choices. The title of the talk is The Politics of Subversion: A Catholic Approach to Political Action.

Theology on Tap is an event designed for young adults between the ages of 18-35. It is a casual atmosphere which encourages the formation of faith, friendship, and the consuming of delicious beer (in moderation of course). It's a place for inquiring minds, those who don't go to Church, those who are well formed, and everyone in between. Invite a friend and come to the inaugural Theology on Tap for the 2015-2016 Season. Enjoy the beer and food at our new location: The Guild (1250 Wharf St.). Information and link to Facebook group available at TOTVIC.CA
