These are the Martyrs of Today

After four Missionaries of Charity were slain by ISIS the sole surviving sister gives an eyewitness account. Reprinted with permission from the May 2016, Knights of Columbus, COLUMBIA Magazine

EDITOR'S NOTE: On Friday, March 4, armed ISIS militants in Aden, Yemen, invaded a home for the elderly and disabled run by the Missionaries of Charity, the religious order founded by Mother Teresa of Calcutta. They killed 16, including four of the five religious sisters who operated the home, and abducted Salesian Father Tom Uzhunnalil, who was living there. Sister Sally, the superior of the community, survived the massacre and communicated the events to Sister Rio, a regional superior in the Middle East. Another Missionary of Charity, Sister Adriana, then wrote and circulated Sister Rio's testimony:

Sisters had Mass, breakfast as usual. As usual, Father (Tom Uzhunnalil) stayed back in the chapel to say prayers, then to fix things around the compound.

8:00am: said apostolate prayer and all five went to home.

8:30am: ISIS men dressed in blue came in, killed the guard and driver.

Five young Ethiopian men (Christian) began running to tell the sisters that ISIS was here to kill them. They were killed one by one. They tied them to trees, shot them in the head and smashed their heads. The sisters ran two by two in different directions, as they have men's and ladies home. Four working women were screaming. "Don't kill the sisters! Don't kill the sisters!" One was the cook for 15 years.

They killed them as well. They caught Sister Judith and Sister Reginette first, tied them up, shot them in the head and smashed their heads. When the sister ran in different directions, the Superior (Sister Sally) ran to the convent to try to warn Father Tom. They caught Sister Anselm and Sister Marguerite, tied them, shot them in the head and smashed their heads in the sand.

Meanwhile, the Superior could not get to the convent. It is not clear how many ISIS men were there. She saw all the sisters and helpers killed. The ISIS men were already getting to the convent, so she went into the refrigerator room, since the door was open. These ISIS men were everywhere, searching for her, as they knew there were five. At least three times they came into the refrigerator room. She did not hide, but remained standing behind the door – they never saw her. This is miraculous.

Meanwhile, at the convent, Father had heard the screaming and consumed all the hosts. He had no time to consume the large host, so he threw the oil out of the sanctuary lamp and dissolved it in the water.

A neighbour saw them put Father Tom in their car. They did not find any trace of Father anywhere. All the religious articles were smashed and destroyed – Our Lady, the crucifix, altar, tabernacle, lectionary stand, even their prayer books and Bibles.

10:00 or 10:15 am: The ISIS men finished and left. Sister Sally came to get the bodies of the sisters. She got them all. She went to the patients to each one individually to see if they were OK. All were OK. Not one was hurt. The son of the woman who was the cook (who was killed) was calling her on her cellphone. Since she was not answering, he called the police, and he went with the police there and found this great massacre. The police and the son arrived at about 10:30 am.

The police tried to take Sister Sally out of there – she refused to leave the people who were crying, “Don’t leave us; stay with us.” But the police forced her to go with them because the ISIS men knew there were five sisters, and (the police) were convinced they will not stop until they killed her too. So finally she had to leave. She took one set of clothes and the sisters’ bodies, and the police brought them to an international hospital called: “Doctors Without Borders” for protection. As there was not enough room in the mortuary of that hospital for the sisters’ bodies, the police brought their bodies to a bigger hospital mortuary.

Sister Sally told Sister Rio she is so sad because she is alone and did not die with her sisters. Sister Rio told her God wanted a witness and told her, “Who would have found the sisters’ bodies and who would ever tell us what happened? God wants us to know.”

Pope Francis had his secretary contact the Yemen Secretary of State very often – about once a week to check up on the sisters and reassure them of his closeness. Today, the pope’s secretary sent the message: “I thank them – Little M.C. martyrs.” He said he is offering the 40-hour First Friday devotion for them.

Sister Sally told Sister Rio that Father Tom tells them every day. “Let us be ready for martyrdom”...God wanted them there.

Aden is a rich city – a port city. Aden wanted to be its own state, so they got ISIS in to help them fight against Yemen. ...That was the war last year, with all the bombing. They won, so that is over, but ISIS won’t leave. They want to take over and exterminate any Christian presence.

They did not kill the sister in the war because they had no political reason to waste time on them. But now, they are the only Christian presence, and ISIS wants to get rid of all Christianity. So they are real martyrs – they died because they are Christians. They could have died so many times in the war, but God wanted it to be clear they are martyrs for the faith.

Sister Rio said that Sister Sally is fully surrendered. The police are trying to get her out because they will just keep after her until they kill her. She is fully surrendered and told Sister Rio, “Whatever God wants.” She said the other Muslims are so respectful of them. She said to pray that their blood will be the seeds for peace in the Middle East and to stop ISIS.

Sister Rio said they were so faithful – ISIS knew exactly when they leave and when to break in. And because of their faithfulness, they were in the right place at the right time and were ready when the Bridegroom came.
