100 Year Loss

The "100 Years of Loss" curriculum from the Legacy of Hope Foundation (in partnership with the Aboriginal Healing Foundation) will be facilitated by Fr. Dean Henderson for non-Indigenous People. Fr. Dean, primarily through relationships with Yukon Tlingit, Vancouver Island Ahousaht, TS'ou-ke and Pacheedaht Peoples, is increasingly aware that non Aboriginal Canadians must learn the history of residential schools to better understand the need for our healing, and reconciliation with our brother and sister First Nation peoples.

Fr. Dean will also consider the written reflections of the residential school experience of two Catholic religious orders; one of which was submitted for the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

This short course will be awareness building through lessons from history, experiential exercises and will have the goal of motivating desire for friendship through healing, justice and reconciliation.

Registration will be required for non UVic/Camosun students and is limited.

Dean at 250-882-2151

Married outside the Church?

Did you know that Catholics are bound by the Form of Marriage? This means that for a Catholic's marriage to be valid it must take place before a priest (Bishop or Deacon) and two witnesses. So, it is not the location that is of importance but those three people plus the couple. One can receive a Dispensation from Form if there is a serious reason to be married before someone else (eg. family friend of the other party perhaps who is a minister in another church) but even in this case there is a need to prepare for the wedding with a priest who will request the dispensation for you.

If you are in a situation where your marriage is not presently recognized by the Church either because you were not aware of this church law or because of a previous marriage that you think prevents you from a church wedding, perhaps have a chat with your parish priest or deacon or connect with Louis Melendez at the Diocesan Marriage Office at 250-479-1331 or lmelendez@rcdvictoria.org. Let's see what possibilities exist.

ADVERTISE: Your ad can be in the bulletin. Call the parish office at 250-388-5571 for more information or email: office@gop.ca
We appreciate the support of these sponsors. Please support them.
